2 BY MR. VAN NAARDEN:

3 Q. Okay. Do you know if during the time that
4 Vinnie was doing his work on the patio if that
5 structure stayed intact or if he had to take it
6 down?

7 A. No. No. No.

8 It was always -- it's always intact.
9 I mean, it's -- maybe they reinforce the piling,
10 the -- I'm in Florida now, the wood.

11 But, no, that's always there.

12 Q. How long -- if we use a point in time,
13 August 30th, 2002 as the point in time, how long
14 prior to that time had Rochelle and the kids been
15 living at your house?

16 A. Rochelle would really know the date,
17 because Eric had been -- the police had called
18 Rochelle. We had been in New Jersey.

19 I don't remember when it was. And
20 she drove home.

21 We were driving home in the car, and
22 we get a phone call that she had been called by
23 the police that her husband had been picked up in
24 Longport, that they thought he was crazy or

1 something.

2 And we were very afraid for
3 Rochelle, and even called our therapist to see if
4 we should bring her, you know, to protect her.
5 And we told her not -- you know, just to go home,
6 get a few things and come back to our house.
7 Otherwise, she was headed home.

8 She was living at home, even though
9 in separate bedrooms. She was in the midst of a
10 divorce, you know, proceedings or separation at
11 the time.

12 Q. After that initial time where you said she
13 grabbed a few things, did she ever go back to her
14 house to get more stuff to come and stay at your
15 house?

16 A. I -- I think she was afraid to go back to 17 the house.

18 Q. Do you know if that incident --

19 A. She wanted Eric to leave.

20 Q. -- when Eric was picked up by the police
21 and you got that phone call, and Rochelle and the 22 kids came to stay with you, was that during the
23 summer of 2002?

24 A. Yes, that was. Yes, it was just a few

1 weeks before.

2 Q. It was a few weeks before August 30th?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. To go forward from August 30, '02, how
5 long did Rochelle and the kids stay at this
6 particular property after August 30 of 2002?

7 A. She was waiting for Eric to leave the
8 house until -- she just stayed there. She
9 just -- school was close by, and her physician
10 was close by, her children's physician.

11 Q. So do you know how long in time she
12 stayed, or is she still there?

13 A. No. She finally left. She was there
14 almost two years.

15 She wasn't planning on that.

16 Q. I understand.

17 A. Neither was I.

18 Q. I understand. Did you make room for her
19 in the house and the kids when she came?

20 A. Sure. You make room for her.

21 Q. And where did she stay? Did they have
22 their own rooms?

23 A. They didn't each have a room. I'd have to 24 have a mansion for that.
